"Don't Laugh: World Toilet Day Aims to Promote Sanitation, Rid World of Disease"

The World Toilet Organization (WTO) is a global non-profit organization committed to improving Toilet and Sanitation conditions worldwide. WTO, is a Schwab Foundation Social Entrepreneur and Ashoka Global Fellow. WTO, recently appointed to the World Economic Forum's Global Agenda Council on Water Security.

A non-profit organization in Singapore has declared Wednesday World Toilet Day, Agence France-Presse reported.
But this is not a laughing matter, according to The World Toilet Organization, which was founded in 2001 and aims to make the world aware of sanitation issues.
"Each year, lack of toilets cause 200 million tons of humans waste to go uncollected and untreated around the world, fouling the environment and exposing millions of people to diseases," said a statement on the organization's Web site.
World Toilet Day is a reminder that better sanitation is needed around the world.
